FRENCH TROOPS IN MARCH ALONG THE RHINE

ESSEN SEEMS TO BE FIRST CITY WHICH MAY BE SEIZED

ENGINEERS AND A DETACHMENT OF RAILWAY WORKERS NOW ON THE MARCH

ARTILLERY AND INFANTRY REGIMENTS ORDERED FORWARD TO EPINAL

(By United Press)
Coblenz, Jan. 8.—French troops were on the march today along the Rhine.

Engineers and a detachment of railway workers have gone to Essen, the first city to be seized if France takes steps to enforce reparations payments.

Two regiments, one of artillery, one of infantry, have been ordered forward from Epinal.

Concentrate at Dusseldorf

Troops were quietly concentrating at Dusseldorf in small detachments. Tanks and armored cars will form the advance guard it is reported when actual invasion of the Ruhr starts.

All that was needed to put in motion the horizon blue machinery of war which France has drilled and kept so long throughout the Rhineland was word from Paris that the reparations commission had formally found Germany in fault.

Infantry, it was believed, then would be rushed to Essen to support the engineers and railway detachments, and from that center French troops would spread through the Ruhr valley.

France Is Cautious

For all this business like attitude and the pulse of war drums along the Rhine border, it was believed France would proceed cautiously and that actual invasion cannot yet be said to have begun.

France wants to learn more of America's intentions regarding her troops and about what Britain is going to do next before taking irrevocable action.

One thousand picked American doughboys and one hundred officers stationed here want to stay. The French troops in the vicinity were ordered to remain in quarters to prevent clashes with inhabitants of the occupied region, and the doughboys had to do double duty, but with pay running over three million marks a year and a pride in their participation in the latest European war game, the Americans are keen for staying on. Pessimists in the ranks figure they will be homeward bound in a month.

French and Germans Want Yankees to Stay

Both French and the Germans want the Yankees here. The French feel with Foch that as long as there is one American soldier on the Rhine it gives a semblance of American participation; the Germans feel that the United States troops act as a safety valve to prevent the French from overrunning the Rhineland with fresh aggression.

Up and down the Rhineland occupied zone cities had a martial appearance. Trains were choked with poilus hurrying back from leave; artillery was in motion through the streets of occupied towns and on the highways; airplanes at the hangars were tuning up; soldiers on patrol duty wore their blue tin hats; there was a new snap in the military maneuvers that have become tiresome routine in peaceful occupation—everywhere there was evidence that if the French go into the Ruhr they will do so with a rush and with all the tanks, armored cars, airplanes, 75's, light field pieces and engineering equipment will be pushed into the valleys of the Ruhr along with the first infantry troops.

SPEAKER NOLAN IS GENEROUS TO HIS POLITICAL OPPONENTS IN APPOINTMENTS

(By United Press)

St. Paul, Jan. 8.—Speaker W. I. Nolan was especially generous toward his political foes in the selection today of house committees in the legislature. Chairmanship of the large and important agricultural committee was given to Representative C. M. Iverson, Grant county, the Nonpartisan league candidate for speaker against Mr. Nolan.

Representative A. C. Welsh, of Glenwood, veteran nonpartisan, was given the chairmanship of a new committee on public buildings; Representative Erling Swenson, Minneapolis, nonpartisan, candidate for speaker two years ago, was new chairman of the committee on corporations.

Representative Bert Walworth, Wisconsin, is the new chairman of the labor committee. Two years ago he was against Nolan's organization.

Several house members talked of as nonpartisan league speakership candidates were given committee chairmanships.

Nels T. Moen, Fergus Falls, was given

Finance was demanded as quarters for three hundred officers, the mayor reported.

The town is in a state of excitement. Tanks and cavalry patrol the streets.

German officials believe troops will be sent forward to Essen immediately.

Reparations Committee Action Important

Paris, Jan. 8.—Invasion of the Ruhr for which France rushed warlike preparations today depends upon action of the reparations commission which meets today. Germany is to be called to task for failing to supply required amounts of coal in 1922. If her explanation is unsatisfactory, invasion by France is believed certain to follow.

Premier Poincare has announced he will address the Chamber of Deputies Thursday, so it is not considered likely that actual invasion will start before Friday.

Following a cabinet meeting Premier Poincare denied rumors appearing in communist newspapers as to mobilization. "I will not mobilize a single soldier or railway man," Poincare declared in answer to reports that additional men would be called to the colors.

America's Voice May Be Heard

Washington, Jan. 8.—The United States may soon again make its voice heard in European councils.

The Washington government is watching closely events in France and it is believed certain President Harding will make at least one further move if war looms larger on the Rhineland horizon.

Despite the fact that this government believes it did all that was possible under the circumstances recently in announcing its program to relieve the situation in Europe—the plan for a conference or commission to recommend a reparations figure with hope of a loan to Germany to follow—the United States will state its opinion in some further way if matters become worse in Europe.

President Harding, Secretary of State Hughes and Ambassador to England George Harvey today were considering the Reed proposal in which the senator declared that American troops of occupation on the Rhine should be withdrawn.

While nothing is yet understood to be decided, indications are the administration will prefer to wait an actual advance by France into the Ruhr before withdrawing the United States forces.

The state department today announced that this government had officially proposed to France and other European nations that the reparations question be submitted to a commission of business and financial interests. This statement was made to deny reports that the only move this government had made in the European en the chairmanship of the crime pre-gus Falls, was named chairman of the health and hospital committee, and L. C. Spooner was also given a committee chairmanship.

The five new committees are on crime prevention, public buildings, state parks, telephones and telegraphs. Representative Oscar A. Swenson, of Nicollet, a speakership candidate at the time of the house caucus in November which endorsed Speaker Nolan, was given the chairmanship of the house committee on highways for the third time.

Swenson was candidate for speaker in 1919 and 1921 but each time withdrew in favor of Speaker Nolan. He announced this time he would not withdraw and made a speech at the caucus vigorously denouncing the methods used by Speaker Nolan to secure a third term. He withdrew, however, just before the legislature convened.

New York, Jan. 8.—A censorship was clamped down today on the proceedings of Emile Coue.

The French master of auto-suggestion who says he helps the sick get well themselves, worked behind a screen of secrecy imposed by New York police.

At his publicity quarters it was announced one representative of the press would be permitted to attend Coue's clinics and that this representative of his would later make a statement of what has occurred.

Reports to Coue's office were indicative that a Coue craze is passing over the country. The slogan "day by day in every way I am getting better and better" is gaining wider circulation daily.

situation was a revelation of the American proposal by Secretary Hughes in his recent New Haven address that the plan had not been presented to Europe through the diplomatic channels.

It was again emphasized that the commission of inquiry is the outstanding feature of the American plan to aid Europe and that France is still withholding her assent to the proposal.

German Mark Drops Lower

Berlin, Jan. 8.—Collapse of the German mark to new low levels followed French activities pointing toward occupation of the Rhineland-Ruhr.

A dollar brought nearly 10,000 marks, while the pound sterling was around 45,000. Reports from the Ruhr said all classes there had stoically determined to submit to occupation without interference, but an assembly to advocate the uniting of Germany to Austria was turned into a gigantic anti-French demonstration Sunday.

It was indicated that both German workers and the bourgeoisie will quietly submit. Communists alone were understood to be preparing to combat propaganda the French move in an effort to convince the poilus that they are carrying out a militaristic policy.

CLAIMED FINAL DECISION ON THE MATTER IS TO BE REACHED THIS MONDAY

The Minneapolis Journal and Minneapolis Tribune of Sunday carried this story, virtually of the substance given:

Official termination of the shopmen's strike in the northwest within a few days was forecast in the twin cities Sunday, as the probable outcome of conferences at which B. M. Jewell, national chief of railway shopmen, who has been in St. Paul since Thursday under an assumed name, is the dominant voice. Efforts officially to call off the strike are directed primarily toward the Great Northern and Northern Pacific railways, but minor strike leaders said the move, undoubtedly will extend to other companies in the northwest who have men still out on strike. Final decision is to be reached Monday, officials of the shopmen's union said.

Shops on the Great Northern, Northern Pacific and other roads now are operating virtually at capacity and many strikers have returned to their old jobs.

U. P. Report from St. Paul

(By United Press)
St. Paul, Jan. 8.—Settlement of the shopmen's strike within a week was predicted today by well informed labor leaders.

This follows conferences held in St. Paul last week at which B. M. Jewell, president of the railway employees, American Federation of Labor, and several of his representatives were present.

Chairmen of the brotherhoods on the Northern Pacific and Great Northern lines were at the conferences. These are the two major railroads which have failed to settle with the workers since the strike which started July 1, 1922. Chairmen of the brotherhoods continued to refuse to make any statement today although they admitted that the meetings had been held.

ROBBERS NETTED RICH HAUL FROM OFFICE OF GEO. T. HARDING, COMPTROLLER

Chicago, Jan. 8.—Robbery of $200,000 worth of negotiable bonds from the real estate office of George T. Harding, city comptroller, was revealed by police today.

Robbers blew Harding's safe last week and it was announced that only a small amount was taken. Authorities believing that by covering up the extent of the theft they would have a better opportunity to trace the robbers, gave out the announcement.

Circulars giving the real facts of the thefts and description of the bonds were sent to police departments throughout the country today by Chicago authorities.

GREAT BRITAIN ASSURES AMERICA SHE INTENDS TO PAY HER HUGE WAR LOANS

(By United Press)

Washington, Jan. 8.—America today received official assurances of Great Britain's intentions to pay her war loans from the United States now totaling approximately five billion nine hundred million dollars in principal and interest.

The assurance was given by Stanley Baldwin, British chancellor of the exchequer, at the first official meeting of the American and British war debt funding commission held today in the treasury department.

In a speech at the opening of the meeting, Baldwin said in part: "We have come with the express intention of repaying our debt and it is owing to the practical differences of making international payments that we are about to consult with you in order to accomplish the end which we both have in view."

Baldwin plainly indicated that this country must not expect payment in full for many years when he said: "It is our way to pay as we go so far as we can. From that fixed principle we have no intention now to depart. The total annual per capita taxation is still greater than that of any other people. It amounts to more than $100 per head of the population."

BANDITS TOO ROUGH; CLYDE RETALIATE

(By United Press)

Kansas City, Mo., Jan. 8.—"Some of these bandits go too far and you just have to hit them," Clyde Zick, pie-wagon driver, meekly apologized to police.

Zick struck a pair of bandits for the second time because they were "discourteous" when they held him up, he explained.

"I told them I had $20 and held up my hands for them to take it. Instead of being satisfied one bandit slashed my face with a knife and the other kicked me."

"I couldn't stand that, so I hit back and they ran without taking the money."

Zick said he was held up a month ago.

"I told them to take my money, but they got rough that time, too, so I just had to kick them off my wagon and drive away," he said.

NATION SEARCHED FOR MILLIONAIRE LOST IN CHICAGO

HUGO SCHLEISINGER, 63, MYSTERIOUSLY DISAPPEARED AFTER LEAVING HOTEL

POLICE BELIEVE HE WAS KIDNAPED, RANSOM MAY BE SOUGHT BY BANDITS

(By United Press)

Chicago, Jan. 8.—A nation-wide search for Hugo Schleisinger, 63, wealthy millionaire businessman who mysteriously disappeared after checking out of a hotel here Friday, was launched here today.

Police believed he was kidnapped. Schleisinger was an uncle of Arnan and Harry Schleisinger, millionaire owners of the Goodrich Tire and Rubber company.

Authorities in Chicago and Milwaukee have searched hotels and hospitals since Friday in an unavailing effort to locate the missing man. The kidnapping theory was strengthened by a mysterious call to the Milwaukee police last night from some one in Chicago demanding the telephone number of Louis Schleisinger, a brother. Police believed this was the first step toward a demand for ransom.

Schleisinger left Milwaukee last Thursday evening. On his arrival here he approached Harry Saugner, guarding at the Northwestern station, and insisted that he be given a place in the station to sleep. The guard finally took the aged millionaire to a hotel. Friday Schleisinger paid his bill and left the hotel. Professor Herman Schleisinger, of the University of Chicago, another nephew, told police his uncle had been in failing health recently and was childish.

DEATH AND INSANITY INCREASED SINCE DRY LAW CAME

(By United Press)

Chicago, Jan. 8.—Deaths due to alcoholism, or poison "booze" have increased more than 100 per cent in Chicago, since the advent of prohibition, according to figures compiled at the psychopathic hospital here by Dr. James Whitney Hall.

"Before the Volstead act was put in effect deaths from alcoholism averaged seven or eight yearly," Hall said. "During the first nine months of 1922 22 persons died from bad booze."

"Not only is it taking life, but insanity, traceable to alcoholism, has doubled since the dry law was passed. More than 150 people go insane in Cook county weekly as compared to sixty or seventy in pre-dry times."

ANOTHER RICH INDIAN MAIDEN

(By United Press)

Depew, Okla., Jan. 8.—Another Oklahoma Indian has joined the ranks of the "heavily rich." The latest addition is Miss Eliza Big Pond, young Indian maiden living here.

Miss Big Pond was allotted two eight-acre tracts near here recently by the Indian Land Department. Shortly afterward, a gigantic gasser was brought in on one of the tracts. The well showed signs of oil and caused valuation of the land to be placed in the millions of dollars.

Miss Pond is now attending the Haskell Institute, at Lawrence, Kansas.

SOME CHANGES MAY HELP BOOTLEGGING

(By United Press)

Washington, Jan. 8.—Prohibition enforcement may be crippled by enactment of some of the drastic legislation recently proposed in congress, Representative Volstead, of Minnesota, father of the present enforcement act, warned today.

Volstead, although as dry as ever, looks with distinct disfavor on the efforts of other prohibitionists to make the law more drastic. He believes some of the changes proposed by other dries would make bootlegging easier.

TEACH SEX HYGIENE AND HAVE SUPER RACE

(By United Press)

Chicago, Jan. 8.—A race of super men and women would result from the general practice of the principles of sex hygiene," Dr. Thomas J. Allen, noted Quaker authority, declared here. "Come out in the open," Dr. Allen declared. "Fighting the sex problem in silence and secrecy has proven a woeful failure."

Ninety per cent of the misery in the world is caused by ignorance of sex matters.

"The high school teacher who doesn't know that much of the failure of her charges in both athletics and studies is due to wasted vitality has not even cut her wisdom teeth yet."

"Proper sex instruction must be based on the truism that the iniquities of the parents are visited on the children to the third and fourth generation."

"The Jews have survived as a race longer than other peoples simply because they practiced a crude sort of sex hygiene taught by Moses."

FAMILY COMES BEFORE TOBACCO

(By United Press)

Atlanta, Ga., Jan. 8.—"A woman is only a woman, but a good cigar is a smoke," Rudyard Kipling wrote. But the Georgia supreme court decided that a man's family should be placed above a good smoke.

The decision was rendered in the case of Nan Smith against Horace Smith, which was up on appeal after he wife had been granted $20 a month alimony and $50 attorney's fees.

"The defendant has stated that if compelled to pay the fees asked, he will have no money left for tobacco," he court stated. "We appreciate the pleasures of the weed, but when a man enters the bonds of matrimony he accepts many matrimonial burdens."

"One of these burdens is the support of his wife and children and when a conflict arises between the discharge of this duty and the use of tobacco, the matter must yield to the former."

BANDITS TOO ROUGH; CLYDE RETALIATE

(By United Press)
Kansas City, Mo., Jan. 8.—"Some of these bandits go too far and you just have to hit them," Clyde Zick, policeman driver, meekly apologized to police.

Zick struck a pair of bandits for the second time because they were "disrespectful" when they held him up, he explained.

"I told them I had $20 and held up my hands for them to take it. Instead of being satisfied one bandit slashed my face with a knife and the other kicked me."

"I couldn't stand that, so I hit back and they ran without taking the money."

Zick said he was held up a month ago.

"I told them to take my money, but they got rough that time, too, so I just had to kick them off my wagon and drive away," he said.

TEACH SEX HYGIENE AND HAVE SUPER RACE

(By United Press)
Chicago, Jan. 8.—A race of super men and women would result from the general practice of the principles of sex hygiene," Dr. Thomas J. Allen, noted Quaker authority, declared here. "Come out in the open," Dr. Allen declared. "Fighting the sex problem in silence and secrecy has proven a woeful failure."

Ninety per cent of the misery in the world is caused by ignorance of sex matters.

"The high school teacher who doesn't know that much of the failure of her charges in both athletics and studies is due to wasted vitality has not even cut her wisdom teeth yet."

"Proper sex instruction must be based on the truism that the iniquities of the parents are visited on the children to the third and fourth generation."

"The Jews have survived as a race longer than other peoples simply because they practiced a crude sort of sex hygiene taught by Moses."

POLICEMAN SHOT BY HOUSEHOLDER

Rockford, Ill., Jan. 8.—Irvin Countryman today shot and seriously wounded Claude Meyers, a policeman. The shooting occurred in Countryman's home. He declared he found the officer entered the home with the intention of stealing valuables. The shooting occurred at 4 a. m. when Meyers was off duty.

FAMILY COMES BEFORE TOBACCO

(By United Press)
Atlanta, Ga., Jan. 8.—"A woman is only a woman, but a good cigar is a smoke," Rudyard Kipling wrote.

But the Georgia supreme court decided that a man's family should be placed above a good smoke.

The decision was rendered in the case of Nan Smith against Horace Smith, which was up on appeal after he wife had been granted $20 a month alimony and $50 attorney's fees.

"The defendant has stated that if compelled to pay the fees asked, he will have no money left for tobacco," he court stated. "We appreciate the pleasures of the weed, but when a man enters the bonds of matrimony he accepts many matrimonial burdens."

"One of these burdens is the support of his wife and children and when a conflict arises between the discharge of this duty and the use of tobacco, the matter must yield to the former."

SUPREME COURT RULES ON CASE

(By United Press)
Washington, Jan. 8.—The supreme court today dismissed the suit which sought to compel lowering of the pool at Hennepin dam, Minnesota, at certain seasons to prevent destruction of fish.

The action to dismiss was made by solicitor General Beck on behalf of Charles N. Waters, who brought the suit.

NATION SEARCHED FOR MILLIONAIRE LOST IN CHICAGO

HUGO SCHLEISINGER, 63, MYSTERIOUSLY DISAPPEARED AFTER LEAVING HOTEL

POLICE BELIEVE HE WAS KIDNAPED, RANSOM MAY BE SOUGHT BY BANDITS

(By United Press)
Chicago, Jan. 8.—A nation-wide search for Hugo Schleisinger, 63, wealthy millionaire businessman who mysteriously disappeared after checking out of a hotel here Friday, was launched here today.

Police believed he was kidnapped. Schleisinger was an uncle of Arnan and Harry Schleisinger, millionaire owners of the Goodrich Tire and Rubber company.

Authorities in Chicago and Milwaukee have searched hotels and hospitals since Friday in an unavailing effort to locate the missing man. The kidnapping theory was strengthened by a mysterious call to the Milwaukee police last night from some one in Chicago demanding the telephone number of Louis Schleisinger, a brother. Police believed this was the first step toward a demand for ransom.

Schleisinger left Milwaukee last Thursday evening. On his arrival here he approached Harry Saugner, guarding at the Northwestern station, and insisted that he be given a place in the station to sleep. The guard finally took the aged millionaire to a hotel. Friday Schleisinger paid his bill and left the hotel. Professor Herman Schleisinger, of the University of Chicago, another nephew, told police his uncle had been in failing health recently and was childish.

DEATH AND INSANITY INCREASED SINCE DRY LAW CAME

(By United Press)
Chicago, Jan. 8.—Deaths due to alcoholism, or poison "booze" have increased more than 100 per cent in Chicago, since the advent of prohibition, according to figures compiled at the psychopathic hospital here by Dr. James Whitney Hall.

"Before the Volstead act was put in effect deaths from alcoholism averaged seven or eight yearly," Hall said. "During the first nine months of 1922 22 persons died from bad booze."

"Not only is it taking life, but insanity, traceable to alcoholism, has doubled since the dry law was passed. More than 150 people go insane in Cook county weekly as compared to sixty or seventy in pre-dry times."

ANOTHER RICH INDIAN MAIDEN

(By United Press)
Depew, Okla., Jan. 8.—Another Oklahoma Indian has joined the ranks of the "heap rich." The latest addition is Miss Eliza Big Pond, young Indian maiden living here.

Miss Big Pond was allotted two eight-acre tracts near here recently by the Indian Land Department. Shortly afterward, a gigantic gasser was brought in on one of the tracts. The well showed signs of oil and caused valuation of the land to be placed in the millions of dollars.

Miss Pond is now attending the Haskell Institute, at Lawrence, Kansas.

SOME CHANGES MAY HELP BOOTLEGGING

(By United Press)
Washington, Jan. 8.—Prohibition enforcement may be crippled by enactment of some of the drastic legislation recently proposed in congress, Representative Volstead, of Minnesota, father of the present enforcement act, warned today.

Volstead, although as dry as ever, looks with distinct disfavor on the efforts of other prohibitionists to make the law more drastic. He believes some of the changes proposed by other dries would make bootlegging easier.

WILL ATTEND TUES. MEETING

86 Counties in Minnesota to be Represented by Presidents and Secretaries of County Fair Boards

D. D. Schrader, president, and August Larson, secretary of the Crow Wing County Agricultural society leave Tuesday for Minneapolis where they will attend the annual meeting of Federation of County Fairs.

The fair of eighty-six counties in Minnesota will be represented by their presidents and secretaries. The meeting opens with a banquet Tuesday evening at six o'clock at the Radisson hotel. The business sessions will be held all day Wednesday and on Thursday morning. One of the duties of the assembly will be to elect officers for the year, and it is believed that President John M. Stoneburg of Cambridge will succeed himself.

The legislative committee of the Federation expect to take up the matter of passing legislation, called the deficiency bill, to reimburse the county agricultural societies of the state with the allotments that they should have received by law, but did not, owing to a shortage in funds. Crow Wing County alone lost $300 in 1922, due to this shortage.

Following the Federation's meeting Thursday, the State Agricultural society will hold its annual meeting, being in session until Saturday. President W. W. Sivright, of Hutchinson has signified his intention of retiring from any active part in the administration of the Society's business, and a lively fight over the choosing of his successor is expected.

Rebekah Social Club

The Rebekah social club will meet at the Odd Fellows hall Tues. afternoon. The hostesses will be Mrs. C. B. Peterson, Mrs. Carl Bentley, and Mrs. M. E. Morrison. Election of officers, and other important business. All Rebekahs come. Visitors are welcome.

As exemplified by Miss Whitaker, the American figure skating champion, who gave an exhibition of her skill for the hundreds now gathered at St. Moritz. Not the least attraction of this spry little athlete is her charming skating costume, which is richly trimmed with grey Persian lamb trimmings. A smart little toque completes the out-of-doors costume.

WOMEN'S AUXILIARY

Of American Legion Starting on an Intensive Drive for Membership

Among the younger organizations in the city is the Women's Auxiliary to the American Legion. This society has not been in existence long and has not as yet made itself felt as much as it expects to from now on.

The auxiliary is starting an intensive drive for new members this week, and it is hoped that all who are eligible will take advantage of this opportunity and enlist in its ranks.

Those who will be asked to join the auxiliary are the mothers, sister and wives of all members of the American Legion, or of any of the boys who gave their lives in the A. E. F. overseas.

During this campaign all eligibles will be visited, and it is believed that one of the strongest organizations in the state will be the result. The campaign closes next Saturday.

OPEN SHOP CAMOUFLAGE

ATTORNEY GENERAL H. M. DAUGHERTY has made a ruling that will check the ignoble procedure of those who, hiding themselves behind such terms as the "open shop" and "American plan," have been deliberately refusing to supply materials to firms that employ union help.

The camouflage which has been used to disguise the real intention of such opponents of labor organizations has not blinded careful observers, who have seen that the terms "open shop" and "American plan" were in many cases used as the meanest kind of propaganda. There is nothing much more contemptible than the deliberate misrepresentation of terms, by which the public is led to believe that a certain program which is in line with public policy is being pursued when, as a matter of fact, just the opposite is being carried out.

The expression of public opinion in America has proved conclusively that Americans favor the "open shop." They conclude that this is the "American plan." Such an arrangement in industry allows any man to work who wishes to work whether he does or does not belong to a union of workers. And there is every reason to believe that this is the best possible condition if the employer and employee seek to do the just and mutually helpful thing.

Such, however, has not been the practice of many managers of "big business" who under false colors have proclaimed their belief in the "American plan" while they were refusing to consider any relations with employers who employed any union help. It is just such tactics as these that prevent a fair decision by the public in industrial disputes. The real purpose of such men is hidden behind the smooth propaganda which the public has handed out to it.

Those who deliberately discriminate against shops that employ union help should be called to account. Their attempts to break the unions by enlisting public sympathy through their use of the term the "American plan" is nothing other than despicable. Utilizing the American sense of fair-play to defeat the end of American justice is to be condemned in anyone. Just such an attitude as this, which hides behind the term American, is producing contempt for things American and bringing in the spirit that seeks the repudiation of our American system of government. And it is not only hypocritical, it is unlawful, as the attorney general has pointed out in announcing that it contravenes the conspiracy clauses of the Clayton act.

The government cannot prosecute hypocrites but it can prosecute law breakers.

THE STRONGEST SEEKS TO RULE

If labor in Superior is prepared to meet the other elements in the city's life on the level there is a possibility that the proposal of Edward F. Lafferty, secretary of the strike committee of the federated shop crafts, who suggests that business and professional interests meet with labor to unite forces, will produce some good in the city east of us.

There are reasons that make it likely that the proposal will come to nought. If it has for its inspiration a desire to improve the general welfare of Superior it may win results, but if it is based upon the idea that because "Superior is not a city of wealth, but a workingman's town," the business and professional interests should unite with labor in assisting labor in its fight the proposal is already defeated.

One of the chief causes of trouble in our communities lies in the fact that the strongest seek to rule and the majority to push through its program without much thought upon the minority interests. The majority expects that the minority will always yield to its desires and believes that by such yielding the good of the city will be secured. This is not always true. Minorities have some rights, and all of the intelligence in a city is not confined within the majority. Just because Superior is a workingman's town, it will be hard for the workingmen to concede the right of the smaller groups to hold opinions of their own.

If the other elements in Superior are to be allowed to express their opinions, which will be considered for what they are worth and not arbitrarily brushed aside because they are minority opinions, the proposed get-together may lead to good results. Such a conference, however, is not likely to affect the strike situation, which the business and professional men had nothing to do with in the beginning, and which, at this late stage of the industrial struggle, they cannot improve by any stand that they may take. It is infinitely hard to bring various interests together on matters of dispute in industry; but in civic matters, having for their purpose the general welfare of the city, they may get together in confidence as Superior people united for Superior.

SHIFTING THE BURDEN

WHAT are commonly considered as revolutionary ideas are in many cases not such when analyzed but simply the formulation of plans for shifting the burden. When labor is receiving high wages and profits are correspondingly reduced organized business seeks to shift this burden—the burden of struggling along on a small profit—from its shoulders to the shoulders of labor which it seeks to compel to struggle along on a reduced wage. This shifting of the burden goes on continually whether one or the other is on top. Neither of the parties to this shifting of the burden is much benefited by the passing of the burden from one to the other, nor is the general advantage of the country helped in any way by it.

While the foregoing is true, a way of changing the order of business as at present constituted is not easily arrived at. The problem is to find a way of disposing of the amount saved by a reduction of wages or a deduction of profits. A resolutions committee, appointed by the farmer-banker conference which met in Minneapolis last week, submitted a proposal calling for the "participation of labor groups, organized and unorganized, in reduction of cost of living, with economies resulting from wage reductions not to be absorbed in profits of organized business."

The recommendation is a good one, but so long as business and labor are so organized that they play the game of shifting the burden, they are not likely to accept a reduction of wages on the one hand or of profits on the other. It is certain that the increased income of business, arising from decreased wages to labor, could be used to the advantage of society. But neither capital nor labor is likely to voluntarily reduce their income, and if the government stepped in and adjusted the burden, fixing wages and profits, however beneficial such a move might be, the fearful word "socialism" would at once be applied to the government's intervention and the very word itself is enough to prevent the success of the plan in America.

WHEN Minnesota tubers are sold as "Florida New Potatoes" at $12 a bushel on the Minneapolis market there is something rotten in Denmark. It is more in harmony with present attitudes to blame the rottenness on Denmark than on Minneapolis. Minneapolis is preparing to elect another radical senator in Minnesota.

FRANCE is against both the German and the Turk. She hopes to collect from both and neither likes the collector.

WHY not let the governor put down the taxes and Commissioner Babson put up the bonds?

LEGIONAIRES TO WELCOME OWSLEY

St. Paul, Minn., Jan. 8.—Among the hundreds of Minnesota Legionnaires who have informed State Adjutant Stafford King that they will be on hand to give their National Commander a royal welcome Friday January 12th, are many who occupy positions of responsibility throughout the state. low of Rochester and Child of Minneapolis and Representatives Pearson Gehan, Sweitzer and Lightner of St. Paul and Representatives McKnight and McLean of Minneapolis.

National Commander Owsley is regarded as the most distinguished Legion orator, and one of the greatest of all American speakers. He will be officially welcomed to Minnesota by State Commander Barrow of Cloquet and State Adjutant King of Deer River, as well as Past Commanders Vernon of Little Falls and Fuller and Van Dyke of St. Paul, and past and present national committeemen Ray Rossberg of Crookston and Z. EVELYN NESBIT NEAR DEATH IN HOSPITAL AT ATLANTIC CITY

Atlantic City, Jan. 8.—Evelyn Nesbit, who has run the gamut of emotions from millionaire's wife to drug fiend, was near death here tonight in a private hospital.

Only her 12 year old son, Russell Thaw, the baby born after the incarceration of Harry K. Thaw, for the murder of Stanford White, is permitted to see her.

Pneumo-pneumonia, brought on by Miss Nesbit's exposure to the bitter-cold weather of the holidays, caused her illness, which physicians say may prove fatal.

The tragedy of the affair is that less than a month has passed since the actress threw off the drug habit.

On the day she was stricken ill she was planning to assist a campaign to expose the machinations of a Pittsburgh drug ring.

LADIES! SECRET TO DARKEN GRAY HAIR

Bring Back its Color and Lustre with Grandma's Sage Tea Recipe

Common garden sage, brewed into a heavy tea, with sulphur and alcohol added will turn gray, streaked and faded hair beautifully dark and luxuriant. Mixing the Sage Tea and Sulphur recipe at home, though, is troublesome. An easier way is to get the ready-to-use preparation, improved by the addition of other ingredients, a large bottle, at little cost, at drug stores, known as "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," thus avoiding a lot of fuss.

While gray, faded hair is not sinful, we all desire to retain our youthful appearance and attractiveness. By darkening your hair with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound, no one can tell, because it does it so naturally, so evenly. You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning all gray hairs have disappeared. After another application or two your hair becomes beautifully dark, glossy, soft and luxuriant, and you appear years younger.

Large Capital Becoming Mobilization Of Small Holders' Savings, Says Hoover Urging Individualism, For Fellow Men

This is the third of a series of three excerpts this paper will present through the courtesy of Doubleday, Page & Co. from "American Individualism," the new book in which Herbert Hoover, now Secretary of Commerce, and well beloved for his many services to humanity by Americans of all political beliefs, seeks to define the treasures of American citizenship and civilization.

By Herbert Hoover

(U. S. A.)

The will-o'-the-wisp of auto-eroticism in any form is that it supposes that the good Lord endowed a special few with all the divine attributes. It contemplates one human animal dealing to the other human animals his just share of earth, of glory, and of immortality. The proof of the futility of these ideas in the development of the world does not lie alone in the grim failure of Germany, but it lies in the damage to our moral and social fabric from those who have sought economic domination in America, whether employer or employee.

We in America have had too much experience of life to fool ourselves into pretending that all men are equal in ability, in character, in intelligence, in ambition. That was part of the clap-trap of the French Revolution. We have grown to understand that all we can hope to assure to the individual through government is liberty, justice, intellectual welfare, equality of opportunity, and stimulation to service.

It is in maintenance of a society fluid to those human qualities that our individualism departs from the individualism of Europe. There can be no rise for the individual through the frozen strata of class, or of castes, and no stratification can take place in a mass livened by the free stir of its particles.

The pioneers of our American individualism had the good sense not to reward Washington and Jefferson and Hamilton with hereditary dukedoms and fixtures in landed estates, as Great Britain rewarded Marlborough and Nelson. Otherwise our American fields of opportunity would have been clogged with long generations inheriting their fathers' privileges without their fathers' capacity for service.

That our system has avoided the establishment and domination of class has a significant proof in the present Administration in Washington. Of the twelve men comprising the President, Vice-President and Cabinet, nine have earned their own way in life without economic inheritance, and eight of them started with manual labor.

The domination by arbitrary individual ownership is disappearing because the works of to-day are steadily growing more and more beyond the resources of any one individual, and steadily taxation will reduce relatively excessive individual accumulations. The number of persons in partnership through division of ownership among many stockholders is steadily increasing—thus 100,000 to 200,000 partners in a single concern are not uncommon. The overwhelmingly largest portion of our mobile capital is that of our banks, insurance companies, building and loan associations, and the vast majority of all this is the aggregated small savings of our people. Thus large capital is steadily becoming more and more a mobilization of the savings of the small holder—the actual people themselves—and its administration becomes at once more sensitive to the moral opinions of the people in order to attract their support. The directors and managers of large concerns, themselves employees of these great groups of individual stockholders, or policy holders, reflect a spirit of community responsibility.

Salvation will not come to us out of the wreckage of individualism. What we need to-day is steady devotion to a better, brighter, broader individualism—an individualism that carries increasing responsibility and service to our fellows. Our need is not for a way out but a way forward. Our individualism is rooted in our very nature. It is based on conviction born of experience. Equal opportunity, the demand for a fair chance, is the formula of American individualism because it is the method of American achievement.

OPEN SHOP CAMOUFLAGE

ATTORNEY GENERAL H. M. DAUGHERTY has made a ruling that will check the ignoble procedure of those who, hiding themselves behind such terms as the "open shop" and "American plan," have been deliberately refusing to supply materials to firms that employ union help.

The camouflage which has been used to disguise the real intention of such opponents of labor organizations has not blinded careful observers, who have seen that the terms "open shop" and "American plan" were in many cases used as the meanest kind of propaganda. There is nothing much more contemptible than the deliberate misrepresentation of terms, by which the public is led to believe that a certain program which is in line with public policy is being pursued when, as a matter of fact, just the opposite is being carried out.

The expression of public opinion in America has proved conclusively that Americans favor the "open shop." They conclude that this is the "American plan." Such an arrangement in industry allows any man to work who wishes to work whether he does or does not belong to a union of workers. And there is every reason to believe that this is the best possible condition if the employer and employee seek to do the just and mutually helpful thing.

Such, however, has not been the practice of many managers of "big business" who under false colors have proclaimed their belief in the "American plan" while they were refusing to consider any relations with employers who employed any union help. It is just such tactics as these that prevent a fair decision by the public in industrial disputes. The real purpose of such men is hidden behind the smooth propaganda which the public has handed out to it.

Those who deliberately discriminate against shops that employ union help should be called to account. Their attempts to break the unions by enlisting public sympathy through their use of the term the "American plan" is nothing other than despicable. Utilizing the American sense of fair-play to defeat the end of American justice is to be condemned in anyone. Just such an attitude as this, which hides behind the term American, is producing contempt for things American and bringing in the spirit that seeks the repudiation of our American system of government. And it is not only hypocritical, it is unlawful, as the attorney general has pointed out in announcing that it contravenes the conspiracy clauses of the Clayton act.

The government cannot prosecute hypocrites but it can prosecute law breakers.

THE STRONGEST SEEKS TO RULE

If labor in Superior is prepared to meet the other elements in the city's life on the level there is a possibility that the proposal of Edward F. Lafferty, secretary of the strike committee of the federated shop crafts, who suggests that the business and professional interests meet with labor to unite forces, will produce some good in the city east of us.

There are reasons that make it likely that the proposal will come to naught. If it has for its inspiration a desire to improve the general welfare of Superior it may win results, but if it is based upon the idea that because "Superior is not a city of wealth, but a workingman's town," the business and professional interests should unite with labor in assisting labor in its fight the proposal is already defeated.

One of the chief causes of trouble in our communities lies in the fact that the strongest seek to rule and the majority to push through its program without much thought upon the minority interests. The majority expects that the minority will always yield to its desires and believes that by such yielding the good of the city will be secured. This is not always true. Minorities have some rights, and all of the intelligence in a city is not confined within the majority. Just because Superior is a workingman's town, it will be hard for the workingmen to concede the right of the smaller groups to hold opinions of their own.

If the other elements in Superior are to be allowed to express their opinions, which will be considered for what they are worth and not arbitrarily brushed aside because they are minority opinions, the proposed get-together may lead to good results. Such a conference, however, is not likely to affect the strike situation, which the business and professional men had nothing to do with in the beginning, and which, at this late stage of the industrial struggle, they cannot improve by any stand that they may take. It is infinitely hard to bring various interests together on matters of dispute in industry; but in civic matters, having for their purpose the general welfare of the city, they may get together in confidence as Superior people united for Superior.

SHIFTING THE BURDEN

WHAT are commonly considered as revolutionary ideas are in many cases not such when analyzed but simply the formulation of plans for shifting the burden. When labor is receiving high wages and profits are correspondingly reduced organized business seeks to shift this burden—the burden of struggling along on a small profit—from its shoulders to the shoulders of labor which it seeks to compel to struggle along on a reduced wage. This shifting of the burden goes on continually whether one or the other is on top. Neither of the parties to this shifting of the burden is much benefited by the passing of the burden from one to the other, nor is the general advantage of the country helped in any way by it.

While the foregoing is true, a way of changing the order of business as at present constituted is not easily arrived at. The problem is to find a way of disposing of the amount saved by a reduction of wages or a deduction of profits. A resolutions committee, appointed by the farmer-banker conference which met in Minneapolis last week, submitted a proposal calling for the "participation of labor groups, organized and unorganized, in reduction of cost of living, with economies resulting from wage reductions not to be absorbed in profits of organized business."

The recommendation is a good one, but so long as business and labor are so organized that they play the game of shifting the burden, they are not likely to accept a reduction of wages on the one hand or of profits on the other. It is certain that the increased income of business, arising from decreased wages to labor, could be used to the advantage of society. But neither capital nor labor is likely to voluntarily reduce their income, and if the government stepped in and adjusted the burden, fixing wages and profits, however beneficial such a move might be, the fearful word "socialism" would at once be applied to the government's intervention and the very word itself is enough to prevent the success of the plan in America.

WHEN Minnesota tubers are sold as "Florida New Potatoes" at $12 a bushel on the Minneapolis market there is something rotten in Denmark. It is more in harmony with present attitudes to blame the rottenness on Denmark than on Minneapolis. Minneapolis is preparing to elect another radical senator in Minnesota.

EVELYN NESBIT NEAR DEATH IN HOSPITAL AT ATLANTIC CITY

Atlantic City, Jan. 8.—Evelyn Nesbit, who has run the gamut of emotions from millionaire's wife to drug fiend, was near death here tonight in a private hospital.

Only her 12 year old son, Russell Thaw, the baby born after the incarceration of Harry K. Thaw, for the murder of Stanford White, is permitted to see her.

Pleuro-pneumonia, brought on by Miss Nesbit's exposure to the bitter cold weather of the holidays, caused her illness, which physicians say may prove fatal.

The tragedy of the affair is that less than a month has passed since the actress threw off the drug habit.

On the day she was stricken ill she was planning to assist a campaign to expose the machinations of a Pittsburgh drug ring.

LADIES! SECRET TO DARKEN GRAY HAIR

Bring Back its Color and Lustre with Grandma's Sage Tea Recipe

Common garden sage, brewed into a heavy tea, with sulphur and alcohol added will turn gray, streaked and faded hair beautifully dark and luxuriant. Mixing the Sage Tea and Sulphur recipe at home, though, is troublesome. An easier way is to get the ready-to-use preparation, improved by the addition of other ingredients, a large bottle, at little cost, at drug stores, known as "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," thus avoiding a lot of fuss. While gray, faded hair is not sinful, we all desire to retain our youthful appearance and attractiveness. By darkening your hair with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound, no one can tell, because it does it so naturally, so evenly. You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning all gray hairs have disappeared. After another application or two your hair becomes beautifully dark, glossy, soft and luxuriant, and you appear years younger.

CASE WAS TAKEN UNDER ADVISEMENT

Judge W. S. McClenahan on Saturday Heard Suit Concerning New Aitkin Court House

PETITIONER OBJECTED TO IT
On the Grounds that Aitkin County Did Not Have Sufficient Funds to Cover Building Costs

In district court Saturday Judge W. S. McClenahan heard the case from Aitkin county wherein a petitioner represented by C. A. Ryan of Ryan & Ryan objected to the proposed building of a new court house at Aitkin on the grounds that the county had insufficient funds available for such a purpose.

A temporary restraining order was issued December 28 and on Saturday a temporary injunction was asked, pending a trial to be held January 6th. The petitioner seeks to restrain the building of the proposed court house and to prevent the county commissioners from entering into a contract to build such a structure, alleging that to do such a thing requires the voting of bonds or waiting on the part of the county until sufficient funds are accumulated.

It was shown, said Attorney C. A. Ryan, that the county has $119,306.15 on hand, which includes $20,000 tax levy of 1922 to be collected. A contract for building at $138,881 has been let pending the outcome of the suit.

Judge McClenahan took the case under advisement and his decision is expected in a few days.

BRAINERD ICE COMPANY SOLD

Holdings of Local Company on Saturday Disposed of to E. A. Romain, of Crosby

CONSIDERATION NOT KNOWN

Brainerd Considered Too Small a Field to Allow Two Ice Companies to Work Profitably

A deal was closed late Saturday in which the Brainerd Ice Co., which has operated under the present management for the past twenty-four years, becomes the property of E. A. Romain of Crosby.

Under the conditions of the transfer, Mr. Romain comes into possession of all of the Brainerd Ice Co.'s property, including the ice houses, teams, wagons, and harvesting machinery used in the manufacture of ice.

Some time ago, Mr. Romain, who has had considerable experience in this business at Crosby, where he was proprietor of the Crosby Ice Co. for twelve years, came to Brainerd and established the Purity Ice Co., and intended to take his product from Red Sand lake.

With the amalgamation of the two companies, the ice will be taken from Rice lake, as it has in the past, the new proprietor intending to start the harvest next Monday, the weather permitting.

It is stated that all of the old employees of the Brainerd company will be retained and the policies practiced in the past will be continued.

The furnishing of ice to Brainerd patrons is no small matter, when one considers that about sixty thousand tons are required for the city consumption alone. With the improved harvesting equipment now in use, this amount can be put up in ten days. About two tons of ice are taken out of the lake per minute and placed on the loading platform.

The Brainerd Ice Company has weathered many financial storms during its existence, under the careful management of Howard Paine. The company has been a subsidiary company for the General Mercantile and Investment Company, of which Mr. Paine is secretary and treasurer. The parent company will continue in its other interests, having disposed of the ice business only.

SEARCH FOR BODY STILL CONTINUES

"Fisherman John," Summoned from Stillwater, was Unsuccessful and Returned Home

FUND RAISED TO FIND THE BOY

Made into Trust Fund Deposited in Brainerd State Bank, Reward Offered to March 1st

The search for the body of Wilbert Bikkie, drowned in the Mississippi river on December 31st, still continues. John Jeremy, who was called from Stillwater to hunt for the body, gave up the work and returned to his home Saturday.

A subscription of over $200 was raised, and out of this Jeremy was paid fifty dollars. The balance, after deducting enough to pay for grappling hooks, which Jeremy advised, has been placed in a trust fund in the Brainerd State Bank, and to this amount, Andrew Bikkie has added another hundred dollars, making in all about $250 which will be offered as a reward to the one finding the body before March first of this year.

In the event that it is not found within the time limit, several methods of disposing of the fund have been advanced. One is to cut down the reward to one hundred dollars, and using the balance to erect a small memorial to the six year old boy who gave his life in an effort to save his brother. It is proposed to place this memorial on the banks of the river near the scene of the tragedy.

The other use for the funds is to purchase complete equipment for recovering drowned bodies, and also a flat-bottomed row boat for use in such emergencies. It was suggested that the boat and equipment be kept at the fire station, where it could be had on an instant's notice and be taken to the scene of an accident by the fire truck.

Mrs. Bikkie, the mother of the ill-fated boy, has been seriously ill from the effects of the blow, and under the doctor's care. She is reported to be slightly improved today, however.

Searching parties are still working at the river, and with the warmer weather of the past two days, it is hoped that much can be accomplished.

NELS GJERNES, PIONEER DEAD

Homesteaded in Oak Lawn Township in 1880, Tilled a Valuable Farm in the Township

CAME FROM NORWAY IN 1869

Leaves Wife, Daughter and Two Sons—Funeral From Farm Home on Wednesday Afternoon

Nels Gjernes was called by the grim reaper on Sunday morning at 5:45 o'clock. The cause of death was heart disease.

He was born in Vassevaugen, Norway, July 25th, 1855, and reached the ripe age of 67 years, 5 months and 12 days.

In 1880 he homesteaded in Oak Lawn township, and in 1881 he moved with his wife on the present farm where he has resided ever since. He was one of the pioneer settlers in Oak Lawn.

Gjernes emigrated from Norway in the year 1868, and came first to Dodge county, Minnesota. There he was married to Miss Ragna Fladkval in the year 1876. She survives him.

Besides his wife he leaves one daughter, Mrs. Gust Anderson of Borey, Minn., and two sons, Theodore and Fremont. Both of them are at the home. There are also two sisters living in Brainerd, Mrs. N. R. Larson, 901 Rosewood street and Mrs. Anna Johnson of N. E. Brainerd.

The funeral will be conducted from the farm home in Oak Lawn on Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock p. m., Rev. O. S. Winthier, officiating. Burial in the family grave lot at the Vaale cemetery.

Mr. Gjernes was a member of the Eklund Lutheran church. He was a fine christian character, who was held in high esteem by all who knew him. It is a great loss to all of us to part with him. But what is our loss, is his gain. He was prepared to leave, and waited anxiously for the final summons.

"And I heard a voice from heaven saying unto me, Write, Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord", Rev. 14:13.

The family has the sympathy of a large circle of friends in this hour of grief.

Had Wrong Pair Shrinkling.
She evidently was a new clerk in the department store, and was doing her best to please. The customer asked to see wool hose. Two pairs in a size she wished were shown her. One pair was a trifle larger than the other.

The customer remarked that she liked the smaller pair better, but that she was afraid they were not quite large enough. She wished they were the same size as the others.

The clerk promptly replied: "Oh, that is all right, madam. These, the smaller ones, were made to shrink, and the others were not. They were made to stay the size they are."

It was suggested that the boat and equipment be kept at the fire station, where it could be had on an instant's notice and be taken to the scene of an accident by the fire truck.

Mrs. Bikkie, the mother of the ill-fated boy, has been seriously ill from the effects of the blow, and under the doctor's care. She is reported to be slightly improved today, however.

Searching parties are still working at the river, and with the warmer weather of the past two days, it is hoped that much can be accomplished.

NELS GJERNES, PIONEER DEAD

Homesteaded in Oak Lawn Township in 1880, Tilled a Valuable Farm in the Township

CAME FROM NORWAY IN 1868

Leaves Wife, Daughter and Two Sons—Funeral From Farm Home on Wednesday Afternoon

Nels Gjernes was called by the grim reaper on Sunday morning at 5:45 o'clock. The cause of death was heart disease.

He was born in Vassevaugen, Norway, July 25th, 1855, and reached the ripe age of 67 years, 5 months and 12 days.

In 1880 he homesteaded in Oak Lawn township, and in 1881 he moved with his wife on the present farm where he has resided ever since. He was one of the pioneer settlers in Oak Lawn.

Gjernes emigrated from Norway in the year 1868, and came first to Dodge county, Minnesota. There he was married to Miss Ragna Fladkval in the year 1876. She survives him.

Besides his wife he leaves one daughter, Mrs. Gust Anderson of Bovey, Minn., and two sons, Theodore and Fremont. Both of them are at the home. There are also two sisters living in Brainerd, Mrs. N. R. Larson, 901 Rosewood street and Mrs. Anna Johnson of N. E. Brainerd.

The funeral will be conducted from the farm home in Oak Lawn on Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock p. m., Rev. O. S. Winther, officiating. Burial in the family grave lot at the Vaale cemetery.

Mr. Gjernes was a member of the Eklund Lutheran church. He was a fine christian character, who was held in high esteem by all who knew him. It is a great loss to all of us to part with him. But what is our loss, is his gain. He was prepared to leave, and waited anxiously for the final summons.

"And I heard a voice from heaven saying unto me, Write, Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord", Rev. 14:13.

The family has the sympathy of a large circle of friends in this hour of grief.

Bethlehem Evangelical Church

The annual business meeting of the Bethlehem Evangelical church, corner Main and Bluff, will be held in the basement of the church on Tuesday evening, January 9th at 8 o'clock.

Reports of the different officers of the church will be received and acted upon. Officers will be elected for the ensuing year.

After the business session Hugo Schwartzkopf will give a talk on his trip to Germany and on conditions in general in the old country which will be of great interest to most of the members of the church. The ladies will serve something good to eat as usual. All friends of the church are cordially invited to attend.

Had Wrong Pair Shrinking.

She evidently was a new clerk in the department store, and was doing her best to please. The customer asked to see wool hose. Two pairs in a size she wished were shown her. One pair was a trifle larger than the other.

The customer remarked that she liked the smaller pair better, but that she was afraid they were not quite large enough. She wished they were the same size as the others.

The clerk promptly replied: "Oh, that is all right, madam. These, the smaller ones, were made to shrink, and the others were not. They were made to stay the size they are."

TO BUILD TENNIS STADIUM AT FOREST HILLS

By HENRY L. FARRELL
United Press Sports Editor

New York, Jan. 8.—Tennis has grown to such a degree of popularity in this country that the United States Lawn Tennis association is planning to finance the erection of a $500,000 stadium at Forest Hills, N. Y.

The need of more room was shown last year at the Davis Cup challenge round and at the men's singles championship at Philadelphia.

While it is praiseworthy to have in this country something to compare with the great stadium at Wimbledon, England, perhaps it is not just to other sections of the country to select Forest Hills as the site.

It is true that no other section of the country could support such a project but it is true also that other sections of the country are entitled to see some of the classics and if a half million dollars are invested in the Forest Hills project, all the classics will go there.

Competition in practically all of the men's classes are great drawing cards, but interest in the women players has slumped, if attendance can be taken as an indication.

The women's championships at Forest Hills last year drew hardly a handful. The lack of interest was due perhaps to the justified feeling that there would be nothing to the tournament but Mrs. Molla Mallory, the champion, as one said:

"Everyone has seen Mrs. Mallory play."

To stimulate interest in the women players some foreign talent will have to be imported. It is understood that the committee will invite Miss Kathryn McKane, the British girl star, to compete.

Miss Suzanne Lenglen, the world's champion, may also be an entry. Her excuse last year was that she would never visit the United States as long as Julien S. Myrick headed the United States Lawn Tennis association.

Myrick is retiring now, so she may change her mind.

The French star may have another reason for coming back to vindicate herself.

Mrs. Mallory, to continue the feud between them, is going back to Europe again next summer and she may wind up in the British championships again with Suzanne.

If Suzanne should happen to beat her again, she would have more inducement to come over and do it again in front of the American fans.

What will happen to Bill Tilden when he goes to play with a stump of a finger on his racket hand, of course, is the biggest thing of interest in the coming season.

Tilden, apparently, is not so optimistic about his chances but when he says he feels that he may not finish within the first ten next season he is following his usual tendency not to be boastful or vain about his ability.

If Tilden should happen to be seriously handicapped by the loss of his finger, slumping interest in the Davis Cup matches may be boosted.

Australia, for one, has taken the stand that it is unwise for their association to pay a huge amount of money to send a team to the United States to lose.

They, and several other nations, including the British and the Japanese, take the stand that as long as Bill Tilden and Bill Johnson are in their prime, they are unbeatable.

HOW SCREEN STARS ARE MADE

Betty Compson Tells How She Met the Late George Loane Tucker

Betty Compson, Paramount star,

and featured player in George Loane

Tucker's production, "Ladies Must Live," which will be shown at the Lyceum theatre tonight and Tuesday, tells an interesting story of how she met Mr. Tucker and developed into a screen star. Mr. Tucker was looking for a woman to play the part of Rose in "The Miracle Man," and having seen her photograph at a screen agency, he sent for her. She responded and after looking her over, told her he would communicate with her later.

"When I reached home there was a telephone call from Mr. Tucker," said Miss Compson. "He said, 'I am going to give you the most wonderful Christmas present you ever had in your life—the part of Rose in "The Miracle Man." And it was surely the most wonderful thing that ever happened to me."

"And after I had appeared in "The Miracle Man" Mr. Tucker retained me for his "Ladies Must Live." Do you want to know the secret? It is that I think I do much better work in "Ladies Must Live" than I have done in any other picture I have ever appeared in."

The cast is an excellent one. Robert Ellis plays opposite Miss Compson and Leatrice Joy, Hardee Kirkland, Gibson Gowland, Jack Gilbert, and Marcia Manon have important roles.

They Overlooked the Diamonds

THERE is a modern flippancy to the effect that, "What you don't know won't hurt you." It is also a fallacy. For instance:

The farmers of Kimberley were a disgusted, disheartened lot. They said the soil was too rocky to earn them a living. Some of them left. Others died in poverty.

And all the time their children were playing with diamonds.

But the farmers didn't know. They thought the priceless gems were pebbles.

Don't be like those Kimberley farmers. Know!

CREAM WILL CLEAR A STUFFED-UP HEAD

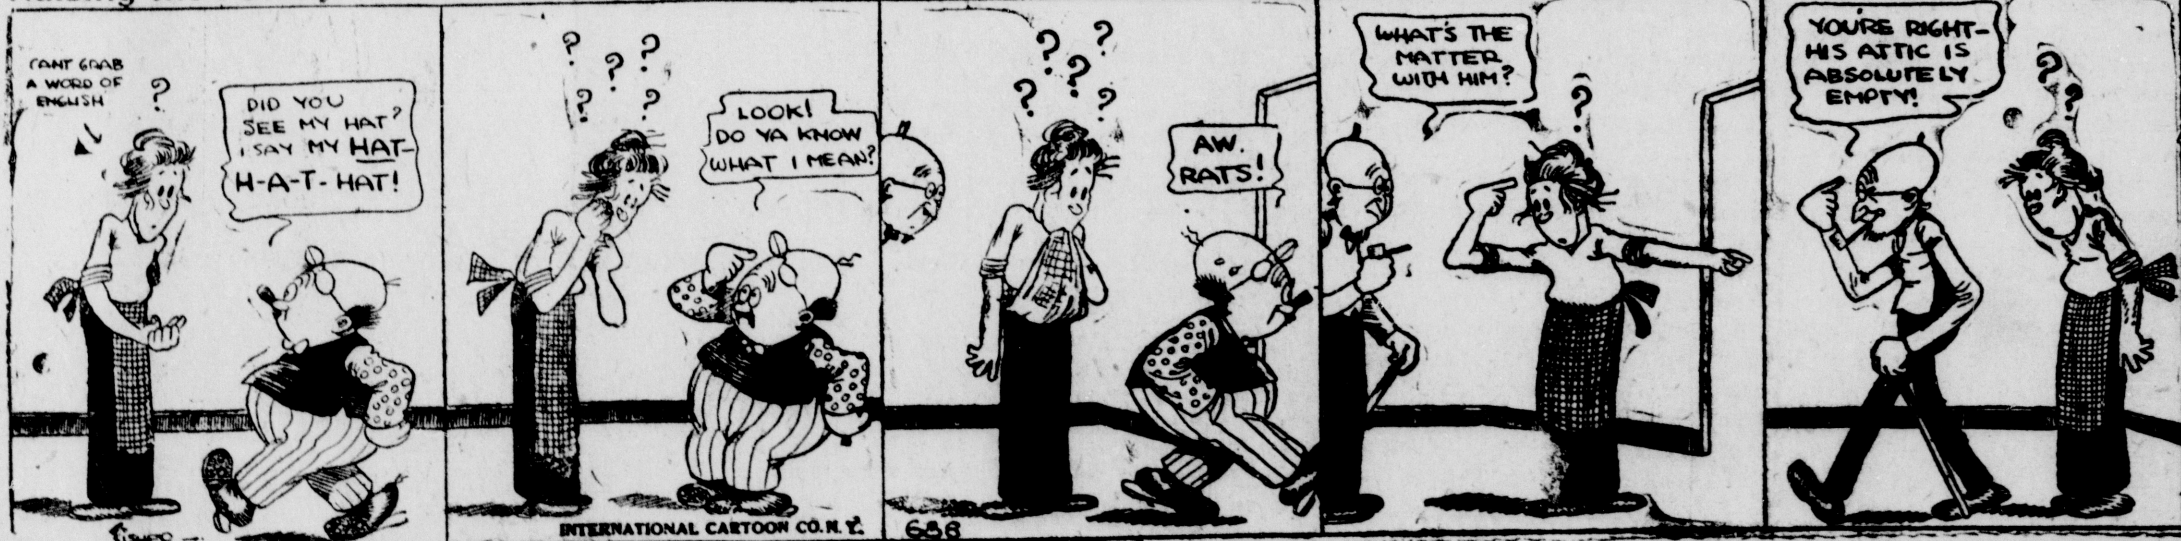

Instantly Opens Every Air Passage—
Clears Throat Too

If your nostrils are clogged and your head is stuffed because of nasty catarrh or a cold, apply a little pure, antiseptic cream into your nostrils. It penetrates through every air passage, soothing and healing swollen, inflamed membranes and you get instant relief.

Try this. Get a small bottle of Ely's Cream Balm at any drug store. Your clogged nostrils open right up; your head is clear; no more hawking or snuffling. Count fifty. All the stuffiness, dryness, struggling for breath is gone. You feel fine.—Adv.
